

Join the Osage Nation JOM Program as we compete at the
"BATTLE OF THE PLAINS"
YOUTH POWWOW COMPETITION
JANUARY 16, 2016
DEWEY FAIR BUILDING
DEWEY, OK

The Osage Nation Johnson O'Malley (JOM) program plans to compete, as a group, at this youth powwow competition against Operation Eagle and other JOM/Title VII dancers. Native American students are invited to participate at this event. In order to participate with the Osage JOM group the student dancer must abide by the following guidelines:

- Be a JOM student in grades PreK-12 at an Osage County/Reservation school
- Dance in grand entry
- Compete in their contest category
- Be respectful to other dancers, groups, powwow committee, and JOM staff
- Be responsible for their clothing & accessories
- Remain until the end of the powwow

Student dancers that participate will receive a gift card for Walmart and Chili's, while supplies last. By signing, you give consent for your child to attend this event and agree that the Osage Nation JOM program and the Osage Nation Department of Education are not responsible for any accidents that may occur or loss/damage of regalia and cannot be held liable.
