- Other Business
 - o Dana mentioned that we should be thinking of activities for the new school year.
 - o Native American Day is most often held in November. The committee unanimously agreed that they'd like to host an event this year, even if it's not in November.
 - o Samantha said that she would like to see words of encouragement, possibly on the gym walls, written in the languages that represent each of our students.
 - o Maria asked about the committee being able to support the book fair, as has been the case in the past. Dana will reach out for clarification.
 - o The newly elected officers discussed having an officer meeting, if so allowed, to organize committee documents and get a better understanding of roles and responsibilities.
- Next Meeting
 - o The next meeting will be held on October 7th, 2019 at 5:30 at the school.
