Osage Nation Museum and Osage Nation Prevention Program to host outdoor movie nights

Pawhuska, Okla. (7/10/2017) – The Osage Nation Museum (ONM) and the Osage Nation Prevention Program are pleased to host the first in a series of four outdoor fun nights, A Night at the Museum: Outdoor Movie Series will kick-off on Friday, July 21 beginning at sundown. The featured film is the animated Disney Pixar feature length film, "Inside Out," a fun filled adventure that will entertain adults and children alike.

Outdoor movie night events provide an opportunity for families and friends to enjoy the outdoors while watching movies on the big screen and learn about all that ONM and Osage Nation Prevention has to offer. Every movie night is free and open to the public.

It is recommended that attendees bring blankets or lawn chairs for seating and arrive with plenty of time to park and get settled in prior to show time. Ah Tha Tse Catering will be on site selling concessions. Free water will be provided courtesy of Osage Casinos and Tulsa Akdar Shriners will be providing free popcorn. The series will be held at the ONM lawn located at 819 Grandview Avenue in Pawhuska, Okla.

Follow ONM on Facebook for reminders and to stay informed about more upcoming events and educational opportunities at ONM. Use the hashtag #weloveONM to post about events and information.
